Ir in refreahing to hear of apauky husband like the following: A man and his wife wene fogitive snow-ball hit the lady. He became forioualy angry, and justlymo, too, and turning on the boye Ind abaking his fist in amort threatening manner, exclaimed in stentorian toles: "Ite lacky for you young rasoale that you didn't hit mel"

Ir is generally supposed that as soon ae it was dimoovered that Figmett, at Lexington, had stolen more from the bank of which he was conbiar than the bank thought it posesend, that the other banko of Virginia looked into their "inwands" to see where they were at. Anyway, the Fisat National Bank it Lynchburg arreated its teller, charging him with stealing 326,000 This sum seams insignificant beeide Figgath's steal, still it is enough to make it grand larceny.

Rev. Bay Suall, having joked others, now comes in for his tarn to be joud. Several yeam sinoe lege, enesye ware pat in the hasde of a commitiee to decide which whe moat worlhy of the prise Virginie wes on that sommittee Sem 8 mall prosented a very able pe per, and the committee retarned it to him and endoned it with thees Dras: The prise is ewarded to eaney to whish is atteched the mame of Sam Small.
